

Editorial Services

Write to Sell Your Book™'s goal is to help every writer achieve his or her full potential as a published author. Therefore, manuscript evaluations and critiques are geared precisely to your work.

Manuscript Evaluation

This service is ideal if you've just finished a draft of your manuscript and want an honest assessment of where your work stands and what you need to do to improve it. Includes:

- In-depth reading of your entire manuscript
- Detailed editorial letter, discussing your manuscript's marketability and specific strengths and weaknesses
- Specific recommendations and a plan for revising
- Email support during the revision process

Investment: $20/1,000 words ($500 minimum)

Comprehensive Critique & Revision Plan

This service is ideal if you've completed your manuscript, have revised it to the best of your ability, and are now looking to take it to the next level. Includes:

- In-depth reading of your entire manuscript
- Detailed editorial letter, discussing your manuscript's marketability and specific strengths and weaknesses
- Specific recommendations and a plan for revising
- Detailed margin notes throughout the manuscript, pointing out particular problems, plus correction of obvious writing mistakes
- 30-minute follow-up phone consultation with Diane to discuss revisions and goals
- Email support during the revision process

Investment: $35/1,000 words ($500 minimum)

Copyediting and Line-Editing

This service is for those authors who have a fully revised manuscript and are ready to be published. Includes:

- Correction for syntax, grammar, spelling, punctuation, consistency, style and readability
- Changes made directly onto an electronic form of the manuscript in track changes mode
- "Clean copy" of electronic version of manuscript with all changes accepted

Investment: $30-$40/1,000 words, depending on amount of work needed ($500 minimum)
